SCHEDULE

FINANCIAL ADVISORY AND INTERMEDIARY SERVICES ACT, 2003 (ACT NO. 37 OF 2003)

EXEMPTION OF AUTHORISED FINANCIAL SERVICES PROVIDERS AND REPRESENTATIVES CONDUCTING SHORT-TERM DEPOSIT BUSINESS FROM CERTAIN FIT AND PROPER REQUIREMENTS AND THE GENERAL CODE WHEN RENDERING FINANCIAL SERVICES RELATING TO MONEY MARKET FUNDS

Objective of exemptions

2. The objective of the exemptions mentioned in paragraph 3, is to address the possibility of regulatory arbitrage between financial products that are substantially similar in nature, purpose and duration.

A money market fund comprises of the similar underlying assets as those of a deposit in a money market account. There appears to be reasonable grounds to allow banks to give advice and perform intermediary services with regard to money market funds without the necessity of complying with the higher standards required in the Fit and Proper Determination for other providers rendering financial services in respect of a financial product referred to in paragraph (b) of the definition of 'financial product' in section 1(1) of the Act ('participatory interests in collective investment schemes').

The lastmentioned providers are required to adhere to the General Code. On consideration, there appears to be reasonable grounds for exempting banks from the provisions of that Code due to the similar nature of the relevant products and the possibility of regulatory arbitrage if they are required to adhere to the more stringent requirements of the General Code. Such exemption is in paragraph 3 made subject to the condition that they comply with the Specific Code of Conduct, which should ensure consumer protection when they render financial services in respect of money market funds.

Extent of exemptions

- 3.1 A provider is exempted from paragraph 3(1) of the Fit and Proper Determination as regards the minimum experiences required in Column Two, the minimum academic standards required in Column Three and the conditions required in Column Four, of Table A in Part III of that Determination, in respect of Subcategory (9) in Column One when rendering financial services with regard to a money market fund. This exemption is subject to the condition that such provider conforms to all the requirements referred to in respect of Subcategory (13) of Table A in the said Part III.
- 3.2 A provider is exempted from the provisions contained in the General Code when rendering a financial service with regard to a money market fund. This exemption is subject to the condition that any such provider complies with the provisions of the Specific Code of Conduct at all times when rendering financial services with regard to a money market fund.

Amendment and withdrawal

4. An exemption mentioned in paragraph 3-
 - (a) is subject to amendment thereof published by the registrar in the Gazette; and
 - (b) remains operative until withdrawn in like manner.
