Subject: RE: FAIS Regulatory Exam Results

Hi Bea,

My story is pretty much as follows: Up until I attended your training I had not so much as opened a book, and I was due to write in 5 days! I attended your training on the Monday, and that evening read over the days notes again. Tuesday I attended your training and that evening read of that days notes. I then studied on Wednesday and Thursday that week – putting in a total of 22.5 hours (including your training sessions) and wrote on the Friday. It is also worth noting that the only book I used was your course material – no Glenrand book, not INSETA manual, no “mock exams” and no DVD training! After finishing the exam, I counted my marks – those answers I was confident I had right and thought I would get 88% - so 86% isn't bad!

Thanks again – I could not have done it without you!

Cheers
